

Series: STORIES WORTH TELLING

Title: Yes, You

Speaker: Willow Weston

Date: June 9-10, 2018

Read John 6:1-13.

1. Beyond providing hungry people with a meal, why would Jesus ask the disciples to do something so impossible?
2. Describe how the boy's lunch was so inadequate.
3. How would you contrast Philip and Andrew's response to their assignment?
4. How does Willow's own story dovetail the story of the loaves and fishes?
5. How good are you at building a case that proves God can't use you? What kinds of things have you said, or are you saying, "Not me" to God and yourself?
6. Conversely, how do you counter that "mean-old-not me" who tells you, you can't do something?
7. What do you think about how Cornwall pastors invite people to serve?
8. What difference would it make if we adopted Willow's mantra, "God already has in mind what He is going to do"?
9. What's the difference between seeing possibilities and seeing power?
10. Read 1 Corinthians 1:27-28. Take a moment to think and then talk about how God uses one of your weaknesses or your pain for good?

Extras:

What if we woke up every morning for the rest of this month saying, "God already has in mind what He is going to do".

What if the women in your group were to attend a Collide event together?
