

Series: DOLLARS & SENSE

Title: Dad Phrases

Speaker: Bob Marvel

Date: February 1-2, 2020

1. Would you say your parents were good at handling money? What did you learn from them for better or for worse?
2. Why should modern people take Solomon's advice on financial matters? See 2 Chronicles 9:22-23
3. Proverbs 3:13-14 states that finding wisdom is better than being rich. Do you think most people would agree? Why or why not? Give biblical and personal examples to indicate why we should.
4. How are Americans like goldfish?
5. The Bible doesn't forbid debt so why avoid debt like the plague?
6. What's the difference between your standard of living and the quality of life?
7. Proverbs 13:7 tells us that, "One man pretends to be rich, yet has nothing; another pretends to be poor, yet has great wealth."
8. Explain the 10/10/80 rule.
9. How would you advise someone who has thousands of dollars in debt to get?
10. What biblical creature does Solomon admire when it comes to financial planning and what makes them and important financial model?
11. What's one practical thing that needs to change in your home?
 - Avoid debt like the plague.
 - Attack debt with a vengeance.
 - Live below your means.
 - Give, Save, Live.
 - Make interest your friend.
 - Plan like an ant.
