Group Discussion Questions

If you want to be in the chain-breaking business – making a difference in the world -- you have to choose to be disrupted.

1. Can you think of a time in your life when you intentionally disrupted your routine, hoping to make a difference?
What led you to do that?
Looking back on it, did it make any difference or break any chains?
2. Where is the “other side” of where you live? Is it a place or a people group?
3. See Mark 5:1-13 When you look at how the demons addressed Jesus, what does that tell us about how they viewed Jesus?
Isn't it ironic that the demons recognized Jesus and the Jews did not?
4. Before Kip mentioned it, have you ever thought of the man healed of demons as the first missionary to the Gentiles?
5. Why did the people of Gerasenes plead with Jesus to leave after the pigs died?
6. Kip suggested that “When you have much to love, you can have much to fear.” So what are some things in our lives that are “much to love?”
7. Is there something or someone that places a burden on your heart?
If addressing that burden will disrupt your life, will you ask Jesus to remove it, or will you ask Jesus to leave, or will you allow it to disrupt your life?
8. Read Micah 6:8 Why does Kip take the time to explain what “mishpat” entails when talking about justice?
9. What does it mean to pursue Biblical Justice?
10. Kip mentions four groups of people who are suffering:
 - Widows
 - Orphans
 - Immigrants
 - Poor and marginalized

What groups of people in our county fit into one or more of these groups?

CHALLENGE: Choose to be disrupted.
