DISCUSSION QUESTIONS:

- How did Paul's reaction to being shipwrecked in Malta become an example of the title of this series on Acts?
 - What could be the possible connection of Cornelius the centurion to the believers living in Rome before Paul's arrival?
 - When in Rome, why did Paul quote the prophet Isaiah after one of his first sermons? Could that quote apply today, after a sermon or talk or one-to-one presentation of the gospel? Do you think it happens in Cornwall Church?
 - How did the entire Palace Guard become exposed to the gospel?
 - Take time to Romans 1:1-16. What are at least two connections of this passage to Paul's visit to Rome?
 - The Bible contains Paul's "Prison or Captivity Letters" to churches he ministered to or started. Can you name them? What are some of the main themes of those letters, and how does this benefit us today?

NEXT STEPS:

- What is one idea/verse/moment that impacted you from this study of Acts?
- God is on the move in the Church and in us. What will we do with that responsibility?
Romans 12:2 → "Do not conform to the pattern of this world, but be transformed by the renewing of your mind. Then you will be able to test and approve what God's will is—his good, pleasing and perfect will."
