MESSAGE TAKEAWAY

- This week represents the most important week in the history of humankind. Don't miss the opportunity this week to reflect on all that it means.

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

- Read Matthew 21:2-6, John 12:13 and Luke 19:36-37
 - Tell us about the most famous person you've ever met. What was it like for you?
 - How do you think you would have felt, in the crowd, waiting for Jesus on the first Palm Sunday morning, and why?
 - With almost one third of the Gospels focused on this last week of Christ's life, how would you explain the way it began, and the way it ended?
 - What are some of the factors that contributed to the political tension of Holy Week?
 - How would you explain the statement that, "Jesus is humble, but not modest"?
 - What was the significance of all the palm branches scattered on the road?
 - The word Hosanna means "save now". Compare the salvation the crowd was hoping for, with the salvation Jesus was bringing?
 - How would you have responded to the religious leaders who asked Jesus to silence the children who were shouting his praises?
 - How do we see the heart of our King demonstrated in the actions of Jesus this final week?

NEXT STEPS

- Read the entire Holy Week narrative in at least one of the Gospels.
- Join with millions of Christians all this week in the celebration of Jesus, our Savior.
- Invite someone to join you in attending one of our three Easter services.
