DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

- READ Psalm 110:1-7. What stands out to you about the teaching on Psalm 110?
 - Why is it important we study Old Testament revelations about the character and qualities of God?
 - In his sharing about Psalm 110, Pastor Bob cross referenced verses from Matthew, Hebrews, John, Genesis and Acts. Does this help remind you that the Bible is a living, continuous story?
 - What distinguishes Jesus Christ from other historical religious figures? What makes Jesus so unique?
 - In the Bible, what is the difference between LORD and Lord?
 - The Israelites were holding onto hope for a messiah who would conquer Rome, but God is a messiah who would conquer an enemy greater than Rome (sin and death). What kind of messiah do you want and how does it compare to the messiah you need?
 - What stands out to you the most in Hebrews 7:23-25?
 - Is it hard for you to remember that God has paved a way for you and conquered all?
 - Why is it so profound when the Father declares that Jesus is a priest in Psalm 110:4?

NEXT STEPS

- What is your reaction to Bob's hope: "If our love for the written word of God does not point us to a deeper love of the living Word who is God, then we are nothing more than a religious book club."
