MESSAGE TAKEAWAY

It's not about what I have achieved; rather who am I becoming.

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

- As a young person, what can you remember wanting to become when you grew up?
- How do the Disney stories Bob retold, parallel the biblical transformation story of the New Testament?
- Hebrews 10:14 tells us "By one sacrifice he has made perfect forever those who are being made holy." Our perfection is past tense, but our holiness is future. What do you think this means?
- What role does the pursuit of spiritual virtues play in our Christian lives?
- How do abundant grace and peace become present possessions for us?
- What are some of the Christlike virtues that you believe God might be working in you?
- Who do you know who has become remarkably transformed, after having come to know Christ?
- Describe how the divine transformation into Christ likeness takes place in us.
- What is God's part in our transformation and what is our part?
- Explain the phrase, "Grace is not opposed to effort. It is opposed to earning."

NEXT STEPS

In your prayer time this week, ask God what you need to do to participate in His work in you.
