DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

- The Israelites were in Babylon, far from home, for 70 years. Tell us about a time when you were really homesick?
- God gave the exiled Israelites a glimpse of things to come, through their prophets. What comes to your mind when you think about the end times?
- What prophecies of Scripture do you look forward to, and give you future hope?
- What may have been some of the reasons Jesus referred to himself, so often, as "the Son of Man"?
- Why do you suppose it is that Christians are the most persecuted religious group in the world today?
- The book of Lamentations is a very dismal book, but in it the writer reminds us, "Because of the LORD's great love we are not consumed, for his compassions never fail. They are new every morning; great is your faithfulness." Lamentations 3:22-23. How can you apply that promise in your life this week?

NEXT STEPS

Reread and meditate on the Lamentation verse at least three times this week.
