Be a blessing in Babylon

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

- Have ever met a redneck? When and who?
- Do you sometimes find it difficult to pray a blessing on our country? Why?
- Have you ever thought about the possibility that God predetermined where you live, for some special purpose? What might that purpose be?
- What was your mental picture of Daniel and the lion's den, before you heard the sermon this weekend? Was it different?
- Why do you suppose the other political leaders in Babylon hated Daniel so much?
- How do you think praying three times a day like Daniel, would affect the resilience of your life? What might make that difficult?
- How do you suppose a continual attitude of gratitude might impact your life? Can you think of anything that might change?
- What do you find difficult to give thanks for?
