DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

1. Do you remember the movie, “Honey, I Shrunk the Kids”? If so, what do you remember about it?
2. Can you tell about a time when your idea of God was very small, or, can you tell about something or sometime when your idea of God really grew?
3. If you knew that tomorrow you were going to stand in the presence of the true Holy One, what would you be expecting?
4. Bob posed a question that scientists, philosophers and theologians have grappled with for hundreds of years; why is there something instead of nothing? How would you answer that?
5. Explain what you think Bob meant when he described God's “divine learning dis-ability.”
6. Tell about a time when you tried to instruct God? When you prayed and told him what you thought he should do?
7. What do you think Jeremiah was talking about when he compared pagan gods to a scarecrow in a melon patch?

NEXT STEPS:

Go outside at night this week, look into the heavens and acknowledge God’s limitless knowledge and power, then thank him that he loves you.
