MESSAGE TAKEAWAY

The cup that gives, the cup that takes.

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

1. What's your favorite beverage when you are parched?
2. What did you do with the wooden cross Cornwall gave you, and why?
3. Could Jesus have meant more than a physical need when he said, "I thirst"? If so, what?
4. What do you think Jesus meant when he offered the woman at the well, living water? How will the "living water" complete us through believing in Jesus?
5. What thirst has the Good News of Christ quenched in your life? What does Jesus saying "I thirst" mean to you?
6. What do you suppose Jesus thirsts for when he thinks of you?
7. How important is it to remember to pray "Lord may your will be done"?
How has this statement given you peace in challenging times?

NEXT STEPS:

Reflect on Psalm 63:1 this week. How can you intentionally "thirst for God" daily?
